

dive

to go under the water head first

dive

to jump into the water feet first

rough

not calm or smooth

rough

flat and smooth

extract

to choose to take something out for separate use

extract

to put something back in and change it

sweeping

to carry something along with great force

sweeping

a sound a baby bird makes

deck

a platform on the side of a ship or a house

deck

to open a jar of something

shore

where the sea and the sand meet

shore

to know that you are right about something

caught

to grab or hold something and not let go of it

caught
where you play tennis

principal

the leader of a school or a place of education

principal
to stand up for something you believe in

neighbour

people who live near you

neighbour
the sound a horse makes when it is bored

answer
a reply

answer
to ask a question

capital
the large form of a letter in the alphabet

capital
something you wear on your head

whole
having all the pieces or a complete part

whole
an opening or a hollow cavity in something